

Zelo Visits Earth

For my Amazing Quinlan!

Written by Alexis Blake

Illustrated by the Artificial Artisan

Copyright 2025 Alexis Blake. All rights reserved.

Zelo was a tiny blue alien who came to visit Earth. He stepped out of his shiny spaceship and looked around.

A girl named Mara saw him
from her backyard.
She waved and said, "Hi! I'm Mara!"

Zelo smiled and waved all four of his hands.

Mara laughed because he looked friendly.

Mara said, "Come see my yard!"
Zelo nodded and followed her.

Mara showed him the soft green grass.

Zelo touched it and squeaked with joy.

They walked to a small pond with ducks. Zelo gasped when the ducks quacked.

Mara showed him big,
fluffy clouds in the sky.
Zelo tried to reach them
but they were too high.

At the playground, Mara pushed Zelo on the swing.

His antennae wiggled as he went higher.

They built a sandcastle shaped like Zelo's spaceship.

Zelo patted the sand to make it smooth.

When the sun began to set, Zelo touched his chest to say thank you. Mara hugged him and said, “I’m glad you came to visit.”

THE END

